

LEGISLATIVE LORE

There is no scarcity of candidates for the commission of New London county, as there have been mentioned and there are more to follow: Dr. McLaughlin of Norwich, Albert H. Lanphere of Waterford, Selden B. Manwaring of New London, Thomas H. Murray of New London, Everett R. Crane of Groton, John Hanover of Jewett City.

John Doyle of Willimantic has been appointed guide at the state capital by State Comptroller Daniel Dunn.

A communication was received from the governor which stated that a communication was received from Governor Fox of Massachusetts, suggesting the appointment of two members of the New England railroad conference. The governor suggested that the members serve without pay, but be paid their legitimate expenses, not to exceed $500. Mr. Landon, of Saybrook, objected, stating that if the committee was to serve without pay they should not have mileage. The communication was tabled for another communication suggesting a union building of the New England states for the Panama canal exhibition in California in 1915, took the same course.

Mr. Hall of Willimantic, on a question of personal privilege, furnished proof that he was the chairman of the excise commission at the last session.

The first and only matters on the house calendar Tuesday, were resolutions appointing Lucius H. Fuller as judge and Malbon C. Giesler as judge of the Putnam court.

While there is disaffection over the appointment of committees of the house, on the democratic as well as the republican side, the open breach between the democratic senators with Senator Landers on the one side and Senator McNeil on the other, caused by party jealousies, and the distinct stand taken by some of the senators against the contemplated nomination of Caldwell for state highway commissioner. At Tuesday's session Senator McNeil offered a resolution repealing the act which provided for an appropriation of $100,000 for the development of Norwich harbor, which is taken as a means of whipping the opposing bunch of senators into line and in favor of the governor's proposed action against James H. MacDonald, the highway commissioner. It is considered, at this time, as extremely doubtful whether the resolution will be adopted by the senate. But should it pass and reach the house, the vindictive measure will probably be throttled to death by discrediting action.

"What we want is competency and efficiency, and politics should not cut any figure in the case," is the way the case is stated by some leading democrats who are advocating the re-election of Highway Commissioner MacDonald, though the agitation is causing some dissatisfaction among the rank and file of the party.

The resolution for a triple-headed highway commission was presented by Senator Welch by request and did not originate with him.

There's just a little dissatisfaction because Senator Shanley and Hurley did not land committees of importance.

It is intimated that Hall of Willimantic will receive support of eastern Connecticut representatives in the new progressive legislative campaign.

There was some disappointment among the New London county democrats because Governor Baldwin did not nominate State Attorney Hall as a full for the superior court bench.

Opposition to extensive appropriation for the state hospital at Norwich is considered favorable.

It is expected that there will be opposition to an increased appropriation for the state police.

There was rumor about the state house Tuesday that Raymond Jodoin, of Sprague, was booked for county teachers.

Senator Miner introduced a bill providing for the pensioning of school teachers.

The adjourned meeting of the senators and representatives of Windham county was held in Room 74, Tuesday afternoon. Owing to the small attendance and the fact that the room had been assigned to the committee on insurance for organization, the adjourned meeting was postponed to Tuesday of next week. Senator Keach is chairman and Representative Frank W. Condon clerk. Immediately after this adjournment there was a meeting of the republican members to elect a caucus committee, which was chosen as follows: Senator Edwin H. Keach, of Killingly; Representative Clark Congdon of Sterling; Prentice W. Morse of Woodstock. The county commissioners were at the county meeting on Wednesday, their report together with several recommendations.

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy."—MRS. LEO LOWE, Bellingham, Maine.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsapabs.
